This Divisional Application is directed to the use of a specific toner in a reverse development image forming method.

The Specification has been amended to add a cross-reference to the parent cases, and correct a typographical error on page 5. Support for the amendment to page 5 can be found on page 26, line 21 through page 27, line 6.

In the parent case, the Title has been deemed as not descriptive and a new Title had been called for. Therefore, the Title has been revised herein and is deemed to be descriptive of the Invention as claimed.

Also, in the parent, the Abstract had also been objected to and a new Abstract had been requested. Attached hereto, is a new Abstract which is deemed to be narrative in form and avoids the objected to language.

Also, in the parent case, the drawings had been objected to as not showing each feature of the Invention. Specifically, the Examiner had deemed that a drawing, showing the relationship between the exposure and development diameters, should be added. In the parent case, Fig. 3 was added to illustrate the relationship of the exposure diameter to the development diameter. Applicants have added Fig. 3 to this Application. Support for this drawing is found on page 12. It is submitted that no new matter has been added and that page 12 clearly supports Fig. 3 as attached hereto. Because of Fig. 3, page 13 has likewise been amended to add a brief description to Fig. 3. Respectfully, no new matter has been added.

In view of the foregoing and the enclosed, it is believed that this Application is in condition for allowance, and such action is respectfully requested.

Should any extensions of time or fees be necessary in order to maintain this Application in pending condition, appropriate requests are hereby made and authorization is given to debit account #02-2275.

Respectfully submitted,
